Palatines in Ireland.

When I heard that Mr. J. J. Donlan, a machine shop instructor at Drexel during the 1950's, had toured Ireland several times, I asked him if he knew anything about the Palatines who were settled in that country by *Queen Anne, presumably in Donegal in 1710. He said that he didn't, but that he would inquire about it. The reply he received from the Irish Folklore Commission at University College in Dublin is attached.
